

Failed to Log In to the Exalate App for GitHub

Last Modified on 03/04/2024 9:38 am EST

Problem

Could not log in to the admin console of the Exalate app for GitHub.

Important: Make sure that you are using your username and not your email address

Cause

Two-factor authentication is enabled on your GitHub account.

Solution

1. Generate a Personal Access Token for the user you are trying to log in with

Note: The token must have admin:org permissions.
