What to do if you purchase a license for Exalate Classic from the Atlassian Marketplace
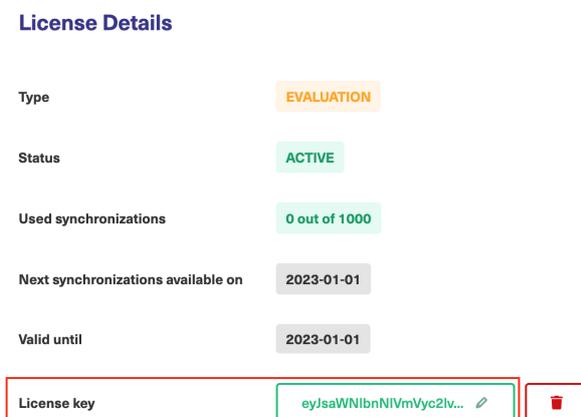

Last Modified on 01/30/2026 9:27 am EST

When registering your Exalate instance, you get an evaluation license. This license needs to be updated once you buy an instance, or a network license. This article shows how to update the Exalate license key if you purchase Exalate from the Atlassian Marketplace.

1. Navigate to the License Details Tab in the Exalate Admin Console.

2. Click the edit icon in the License Key field.

3. Click the Delete icon to delete the evaluation license.

4. Paste the License Key you got from the Atlassian Marketplace.
