

Accept the Connection Invitation in Script Mode for Freshdesk

Last Modified on 03/27/2025 8:53 am EDT

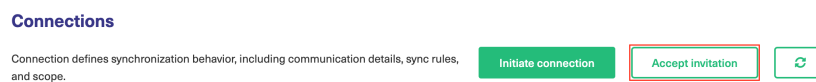

Note: To accept the Connection invitation you need an Invitation Code. The Invitation Code includes pre-populated Connection details such as Connection name, instance short names, and Destination instance URL. You are only required to finish the configuration by accepting the invitation.

Accept the Connection Invitation in Script Mode from Freshdesk

1. Navigate to the Connections tab in the Exalate console.

2. Click Accept invitation.

3. Paste the invitation code and click Next
