

Accept the Connection Invitation in Script Mode for Asana

Last Modified on 10/14/2025 8:18 am EDT

Note: To accept the Connection invitation you need an Invitation Code. The Invitation Code includes pre-populated Connection details such as Connection name, instance short names, and Destination instance URL. You are only required to finish the configuration by accepting the invitation.

Accept the Connection Invitation in Script Mode from Asana

1. Navigate to the Connections tab in the Exalate console.

2. Click Accept invitation.

Connections

Connection defines synchronization behavior, including communication details, sync rules, and scope.
